I, the applicant, understand that this membership is subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Sea Tow Membership Agreement and generally covers non-emergency towing or necessary fuel drops in the specified area of coverage. The cost of fuel and parts is not included in the membership fee. Sea Tow Membership does not cover boats sinking, taking on water, wrecked, burning, boats run hard aground, beached, on reefs/rocks or salvage of boats, or otherwise outside the Sea Tow contract privileges stated in the Sea Tow Membership Agreement. At times of heavy traffic and calls, it is understood that all cases will be handled on a priority basis as determined by the designated provider. It is understood that Sea Tow Services International Inc., and its franchisees, licensees, organization, providers and agents (defined for this limitation as "Sea Tow") will not be responsible for property damage or personal injury sustained by any member, vessel, cargo, or passenger including: while services are being rendered, during any waiting period, and/or due to weather conditions or mechanical and physical restriction beyond human control. Sea Tow will not be held liable for invoices or bills of any other towing company. Sea Tow must be used where coverage is available. Members assume all risk of towing and all other services required, and hereby hold Sea Tow harmless in all such respects, in all instances other than gross negligence. In the event of an emergency, threat of, or actual injury to persons aboard ship, or any occurrence that threatens the safety of passengers or vessel, member MUST immediately contact the U.S. Coast Guard and request emergency assistance. Service will vary by area and by season, and is subject to the discretion of the provider in light of the circumstances then present. Sea Tow reserves the right to terminate or limit this membership for any abuse. Intoxicated parties may be refused service.
